JILL CARTER DESIGN

2026-27 WHOLESALE CATALOG

ABOUT THE ARTIST:

Based in Olympia, WA. Jill uses a variety of media to bring a theatrical flair to unique, whimsical illustrations and graphics. Rooted in a childhood of wild imaginings on a small farm at the end of Hoot 'N Holler Lane in Dixonville, Oregon, Jill's artistic journey began among a delightfully chaotic cast of characters—farm animals, woodland creatures, and a few personalities only she could see. Her earliest drawings layered fantasy onto photographs, revealing the secret lives of furry friends with stories to tell and mischief to make. That instinct for storytelling grew into a multidisciplinary practice shaped by years in theatrical scenic and lighting design, where diverse worlds were conjured on stage. Today, her illustrations carry that same sense of stagecraft—rich with atmosphere, personality, and a touch of magic—bringing a variety of playful critters to life in pencil, paint, pixels, photographic collage, or a joyful blend of them all to bring a touch of whimsey into our everyday lives.
